

Our editor was scheduled to talk to the Home Demonstration Leadership Training Conference which met in Hope the middle of January — a date that was cancelled when a late storm cut the meeting short. But I don't seem to have gotten out of it entirely.

I was supposed to talk to the club reporters on "The Preparation of Newspaper Copy." Now I have in front of me a letter from Dorothy [redacted], district home demonstration agent, which says:

"If convenient, we would like for you to send me a copy of some of the things you planned to discuss with the reporters. In turn, we could send a copy to each county."

Well, I had it in mind to tell the club women that I see a lot of reports in the paper telling the name of the song that was sung, and the name of the demonstration scheduled at that particular meeting — but I don't see the names of those who were present.

Now there is a peculiar magic about names, when the names belong to people. Although everyone has a name, and there's something authoritative about a name when it appears in the same type that reports the big news of state and nation — still, you'd be surprised how many people there are who've never seen their names in print.

Naming everyone present at these club meetings would give the newspaper copy more reader interest — and very likely it would stimulate attendance at the meetings themselves.

As for the technical aspects, copy that is written outside of the newspaper office has four common faults — no matter whether the copy is prepared in a lawyer's office, the preacher's study, or in the home of some farm wife writing up the club report. Here's my advice:

Paragraphs: Keep them short. Remember that you are writing something that is going on the copy-board of a linotype. Unlike a typewriter the linotype produces lines of equal length. If a word is omitted during composition and ordered inserted by the proofreader the extra word can't be put in without resetting all the lines below, to the end of the paragraph.

Newspaper shops, therefore, hate all people who write long paragraphs. I don't blame the printers — and you wouldn't either if you knew anything about the trouble you can have on a linotype. So keep your paragraphs short and everybody will love you for it.

Capitalization: I have just one word for this. Don't. Because newspaper copy headings to many people think our text is made up of capital letters. But over-capitalization is the mark of an untrained writer. Actually, nothing should be capitalized except proper names and authentic titles — and these only when used before the name. Here is the difference:

"Governor Cherry said . . ."

"Cherry, the governor, said . . ."

As in the matter of short paragraphs there is also a mechanical reason for an almost absolute prohibition of capital letters in newspaper copy. Linotypes have a double keyboard. Lower-case letters are on the left, capitals are on the right, with punctuation characters and numerals in between. Very few things in this world are important enough to require a linotype operator to reach across the board and hit a capital.

Sides, do you remember what your first childish scrawl looked like? It was a text of printed capitals!

Well, we're grown up now . . . Punctuation: The main error in outside copy is one that newspaper writers themselves fall into sometimes. I'll call it "The Case of the Missing Comma." You check your sentence with a comma in order to put in a parenthetical word or phrase — and then you forget the closing comma which is required before reaching the sentence.

This is correct:

"The play, he said, was good."

Not like this:

"The play, he said was good."

Numerals: For 10 and above use figures — under 10, spell it out. You write it, "There were 19 present. But only seven voted."

However, when using a series of figures you should handle all alike. Suppose that one of the figures in the sequence is 10 or larger. Then you would write it like this: "The bus had 35 passengers — 19 men, 8 women, and 8 children."

Huge figures, such as those reporting the national budget, or some big public works project, are usually quoted as round sums. The correct newspaper combination on this would be: "A 3-billion-dollar deficit," or, "The dam's estimated cost is 53 million dollars."

There's my speech, Miss Price — scheduled for last month, but never written until last night . . .

Nixon Also Cautious GOP Attacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon has advised fellow Republicans to avoid "indiscriminate" attacks on the opposition on the issue of communism, while accusing the Democrats of losing at the conference table victories won in war.

Whether by coincidence or in line with President Eisenhower's counsel to shun extreme partisanship, a number of GOP senators seemed to take more moderate tones as the Lincoln Day speech-making reached its peak volume on this anniversary of the Civil War President's birth.

There were still plenty of accusations that past Democratic administrations had coddled Communists, or been outsmarted by them.

Story Leaked on Security Dismissals

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST and WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Rooney (D-NY) said today "someone in the department must have leaked the story" about the number of State Department security dismissals effected under the Eisenhower administration.

Newspaper accounts published Wednesday said that in secret testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee R. W. Scott McLeod, State Department security administrator, had said that of 534 security dismissals, just 11 could be attributed to reasons of questionable loyalty. The first published version of this purported testimony gave no indication of its source. Later versions were attributed to House members who McLeod now on a Republican asked not to be named.

These House members also reported that Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, testifying at the same time, told them no active Communists had been found in the department. He has not commented on these reports.

McLeod, now on a Republican-sponsored speaking tour, described the figures attributed to him as inaccurate but gave no others. "I think Mr. McLeod should be back in Washington looking into his own office," said Rooney, a member of the subcommittee. "Someone in the department must have leaked the story. The exact facts in the matter will appear when the hearings in question and answer form are formally made public by the committee. They will speak for themselves."

There Are Many Ways to Look at What Television Is Doing to the American Home Life

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Many people complain about what television has done to American home life. But what can television do for home life? Can it, for example, give every American home what it deserves most—the better housewife?

Yes, can television take an ordinary scrubby barge and mold her into the kind of wife she yearns to be—a charming, informed, all-around woman worthy of traveling down life's rocky road shoulder to shoulder with thaffine fellow, the average American husband?

Wall television is going to try. It is already a guest in your living room. Soon it will be a guest who tells your wife how to make that living room look less crummy and how she herself can also look

Lone Bandit Gets $1,200 at Kirby

MURFREESBORO (UP) — A lone bandit slugged a garage owner at Kirby, Ark., fractured his skull, then fled with between $1,000 and $1,200 in cash yesterday.

The victim was Thurmon Babbitt, garage owner and noted for carrying large sums of money on him. He told Sheriff Freeland Steuart that he sold a man $2.50 worth of gasoline and then the man asked to look at a car inside his shop. He said he led the way into the shop and stooped to pick up a n old tire and "everything went black."

Babbitt was found lying unconscious 45 minutes later by his wife, Irma, when she returned from a shopping tour in Glenwood. A doctor said he apparently had been struck from behind with a blunt instrument. He had a simple skull fracture.

Babbitt said he had between $1,000 and $1,200 in the pocket of his shirt when he was attacked. When he regained consciousness the money was gone.

He described the man as being six feet tall, about 180 pounds, and dark complected. He said the man was driving a green 1949 model car.

Knowland Tells Party to Go Easy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader, Knowland of California, saying "you can't draw a part line on patriotism," took a stand with President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon today for more temperate language in criticism of the Democrats.

"Personally I've never gone in for blanket indictment of the Democratic party as an organization," Knowland said at an informal news conference.

But he added that "there were certain acts in the prior administration subject to criticism," and declared the Republicans "would be derelict in their duty" if they didn't criticize these things.

Knowland said he would have more to say on this when he delivers a Lincoln day speech in St. Louis, Mo., tomorrow.

Big Guided Missile Buying by U. S. Army

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The armed forces have received or are asking authority to buy more than three billion dollars worth of guided missiles, which they started procuring four years ago.

This is for actual procurement of missiles. It does not include other multimillion-dollar outlays for designing, developing and testing experimental gadgets—the research part of the program.

The figures, made available today in response to a reporter's questions, do not mean that the American arsenal now necessarily contains three billion dollars worth of missiles for the Air Force, Army and Navy.

An undisclosed part of the total value is material still to be delivered on orders placed some months or even a year or more ago. And another portion, about 400 million dollars in requests for new spending authority, is contained in the proposed budget for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

But it is a measure of the effort being devoted to producing robot weapons to augment and eventually supplant some of the conventional weapons of the three services. It is indicative, too, of the emergence of controllable missiles from the drawing boards and laboratories to production lines.

Says Yanks Flying Supplies to French

TOKYO (AP) — American Air Force units in Japan are flying support airlifts for French troops in Indochina, the Nippon Times said today.

Still on a small scale, the flights are being made to help the French keep flying their American C-119 "flying boxcars" and to maintain the 200 American air technicians already there.

Far East Air Force headquarters had only this comment on the story which appeared in Tokyo's largest English-language newspaper:

"We can't say a thing, our hands are tied."

Johnny Rebs in Tribute Old Abe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Johnny Reb, broke with nearly a century of tradition today and honored the Civil War President, Abraham Lincoln, on the 145th anniversary of his birth.

President Eisenhower was on hand, too, to take part in the annual wreath-laying ceremony the Lincoln Memorial.

The President's wreath of red, white and blue carnations was the biggest of all but the 1,000 persons who braved a windy, sub-freezing morning seemed more intrigued with a magnolia wreath and its two miniature confederate flags.

That wreath was placed by Col. John Virden, whose granddaddy served with the Confederate Army 2nd Arkansas Cavalry.

Virden was representing the Sons of the Confederacy who had resolved to accept for the first time an offer by Sons of Union Veterans to take part in the ceremony.

"We decided 90 years was long enough to hold a grudge," Virden told reporters. "Lincoln belonged to a people. He was a good deal more than just an Illinois Republican."

Virden is a native of Seminoe, Ark., but now resides in Chevy Chase, Md., where he helps put out the publication Air Force Daily. He was Eisenhower's press office during World War II.

Virden greeted the chief executive warmly when Eisenhower's car rolled up to the memorial. The pair saluted.

The President then walked up the long flights of marble stairs with naval and military aides. He passed before the giant statue of Lincoln, removed his hat and placed his wreath alongside the southern magnolias.

U. S. to Give Military Aid to Pakistan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic officials said today the United States has decided to give substantial military aid to Pakistan regardless of India's angry protests.

An American military survey mission, they said, will go to Pakistan to look over its armed forces and determine the amount and type of military equipment needed.

An announcement of the decision probably will be delayed until after Pakistan and Turkey sign a broad defense, economic and cultural agreement, these sources said.

The two countries are reported to be negotiating the pact secretly, with U. S. encouragement. The agreement is expected to be announced formally within a matter of days, Pakistan officials are said to be eager to conclude it before next Tuesday's important provincial elections, hoping an announcement would help Premier's Ali's party.

Jaywalker Gets What He Deserves

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A motorist was driving through the heart of town today, suddenly a careless jaywalker darted in front of him.

His car lurched to a stop inches from the careless one and the driver jumped out.

In full view of a policeman and hundreds of spectators, he planted his foot with considerable emphasis on the jaywalker's posterior.

The motorist reentered his car. The policeman turned his head. Pedestrians gaped. Traffic began to flow again. The jaywalker rubbed a sore place and walked away shaking his head.

South Korea Offers Troops to Indochina

By AL KAFF
SEOUL, Korea (UP) — South Korea offered today to send a division of combat-tested infantry troops to fight the Communists in Indochina and simultaneously asked the United States to assign en. James A. Van Fleet to lead the force.

"With General Van Fleet to create effective Indochinese defense forces and the Koreans to provide assistance much can be done quickly," a ROK announcement said.

"The United States will be obtaining a victory over communism that would cost 25 times less than if American manpower has to be utilized."

Dr. Hongkoo Karl, chief of the ROK information ministry, made the offer and said he was confident France would accept. However, French officials in Washington said no Korean troops would be admitted to Indochina because of the danger Communist China might openly intervene in the war there.

At Paris, a foreign-office spokesman said the French government had not received the South Korean offer yet but he added it would have to be rejected on the same grounds.

Karl's announcement did not specify how many troops South Korea had offered to send to Indochina but ROK Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai said one division or about 15,000 men, was available.

By AL KAFF
SEOUL, Korea (UP) — Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai said today South Korea has offered to send a combat-tested infantry division to reinforce the troops fighting Communism in Indochina.

"Out offer is made in the belief that the French government will accept," Pyun said.

(French officials in Washington said no Korean troops will be admitted to Indochina, for fear their arrival might give Communist China a pretext for intervening openly in the Indochinese war.)

The Korean offer was regarded more as a diplomatic gesture than anything else. Any such expedition almost certainly would have to be supplied and transported by the United States, and officials in Washington were expected to veto the idea even if the French were favorably inclined.

Most U. S. officials are known to favor keeping South Korea's 18 divisions here to guard against a possible renewal of the war when the 40th and 45th U. S. Infantry Divisions leave this summer.

The transfer of even one Korean division out of the country might upset the carefully-calculated defense plans that make possible the withdrawal of the American troops

Fouke Soldier Shot to Death

TEXARKANA (AP) — Pvt. Joseph A. Huber, 20, of Fouke, was found fatally shot at his mother-in-law's home at Boyd Ark., near here yesterday.

A 22-caliber rifle with a discharged cartridge was found near the divan on which Huber was lying.

Huber was to have returned to Fort Hood, Tex., Saturday after a furlough.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Tillman Johnson said an investigation indicated Huber killed himself accidentally. He said the investigation was continuing.

Huber was struck in the head. He died a few hours after he was found.

Guards Alerted for Forest Fire Fighting

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National Guard and Civil Air Patrol were on the alert today to help about 600 firefighters who, are striving to stem the tide of a rash of forest fires in Arkansas.

State Forester Fred Lang said last night he had notified officials of both organizations that they might be called upon to help in the battle unless the first are brought under control soon.

Lang said he was "greatly disturbed" by the knowledge that half of the 82 fires in the state's timberlands yesterday were set by firebugs. Two persons were fined for starting fires in South Arkansas Wednesday.

The first covered 2,125 acres of timber by late afternoon yesterday. Twenty-five of the blazes were extinguished.

The year's total loss in forest fires, through yesterday, was set by Lang at 13,552 acres of timber valued at $275,000.

Man Found Dead May Be From Hope

The body of a white man between 70 and 80 years old may be identified today as a resident of Hempstead County, Arkansas State Police said.

The unidentified body was discovered near England, Arkansas, in a field on Wednesday. Officers could find nothing to establish who he was but did find several bus stubs purchased in Hope.

Tentative identification was made by a Little Rock man yesterday. A sister of the Little Rock man left Hope this morning to view the body for positive identification.

Liquor Truck Crashes Into Bridge Railing

A large truck loaded with whiskey hit the Bois d'Arc creek bridge railing about 7 a. m. today, west on Highway 87, bounced off and overturned on the left hand side of the highway.

The driver of the truck, enroute from Little Rock to Texarkana, escaped with minor injuries. The truck was badly damaged.

A second truck was sent to the scene to salvage liquor bottles which failed to break. The loss in breakage was considered heavy.

The driver told state officers he was crowded by another truck.

German Treaty First Molotov Tells Austria

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
OTN (AP) — Russia refused in effect today to give Austria its independence until a German peace treaty is signed.

New Soviet proposals, submitted as the Austrian question came before the Big Four foreign ministers, made it clear that Austrian issue is just as dead in the Berlin conference as the German unification question.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
BERLIN (AP) — Austria appealed to the Big Four today to restore its independence without further delay and at the same time asked for an easing of "harsh and inequitable" economic concessions to Russia.

The appeal was laid before the Berlin conference by Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl. As the ministers took up the Austrian question, Russia's V. M. Molotov indicated he had a new proposal to make on the subject. Details were not immediately available.

Figl made his appearance at a regular session later in the afternoon which followed a secret meeting on Asiatic questions.

The mild-mannered Austrian made an impassioned plea to restore his nation's sovereignty and deliver its seven million people from occupation for the first time since 1938. He asked that the economic terms of the draft treaty be revised "in a sympathetic and generous spirit."

These terms would benefit Russia as the treaty now stands. They provide for payment of 150 million dollars over a six-year period by Austria for the redemption of factories in the Soviet occupation zone, which were seized as German assets.

They would also give Russia the lion's share of Austrian oil production for a period of 25 years. Figl argued that the proposal of the country's mineral resources is "an inalienable right for every free people."

By PRESTO INGVORER
BERLIN (AP) — A tiny flock of light showed today through gloomy talks of the Big Four foreign ministers over Asia. One Western source, without going into detail, said they had made "a shade of progress." Another said there was evidence the East and West were looking for common ground.

The second day of secret discussion of Asian problems ended last night with a decision by the ministers to pick up again today such threads of agreement as they had been able to work out.

They planned to meet in secret for 90 minutes before lunch, then begin in regular session this afternoon a discussion of the Austrian independence treaty, which has been hanging fire since the end of World War II.

Neither the Western ministers nor Austrian officials here to sit in on the discussion were hopeful for final acceptance of a treaty which would move occupation troops from Austrian soil. Both East and West particularly the Communist East, would lose military advantages by withdrawal.

As to Asian problems, the ministers after the windup of yesterday's session announced only that they had talked about them but the agenda. This item includes the Soviet proposal to seat Communist China in the councils of the great powers. It also includes proposals by Russia and France for disarmament conferences, but the discussion evidently never reached that point.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilday, D. D.

To know the Christ, to see the Messiah revealed in Jesus of Nazareth, should not be difficult for us.

We have the accumulated evidence of the New Testament Gospels and all the witnesses to the graciousness of His life, the richness and beauty of His teaching and the power of His salvation.

We have the accumulated evidence of those who first saw Him and heard Him, when He was here on earth, but we have advantages that they did not have. They saw Him with wonderment. They heard Him gladly; they observed the miracles but they did not always respond to His teaching. They were amazed and impressed, but there was doubt in their minds.

There had been various false ones, claiming to be the Messiah. So they said, not with conviction, "This is the Christ," but with hopeful questioning, "Is not this the Christ?"

So, we of today stand with all the evidences and assurances of the time and the ages.

But for us, as for those who saw and heard with wonderment, the Christ does not come with His fullness unless we, too, see Him with wonderment.

The first essential for the knowledge of the Christ is to know the story of the earthly life of Jesus to walk with Him in Galilee, Samaria and Judea, to wander in the fields and villages and byways as well as to journey to the fests at Jerusalem and the Temple.

An amazing thing about the Gospels is that they are always new. A sense of wonder is always in the reading, if not a new incentive and a touch of inspiration.

It is as we read and know the Gospels that the truth and richness and the experience of all that follows becomes living—the letters of St. Paul, and of Peter, James and John; the effect of the Gospel upon disciples in a pagan world, and the revelation of what Christ has been to those who have known, loved and followed Him in all the centuries of Christian faith.

"To know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge" (Ephesians 3:19)—that is the richest and greatest experience man can have, and any man can have it (II Corinthians 5:17).

It is not limited to the few, or to the learned. The evidence of that knowledge and its power and blessing is not found only in the lives of recognized saints.

And you and I, every one of us, can be of that blessed company.

Only Cabinet to Soften Jabs at Democrats

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fresh senatorial charges that Democrats had consorted with Communists indicated today President Eisenhower's advice to Republicans to soften their political blows may be ignored outside his own Cabinet and staff.

Reiterating his characterization of Democratic administrations as "20 years of treason," Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said he will not change his tactics to win Democratic support for parts of Eisenhower's program.

"The price is too high," he told a Lincoln Day audience of some 6,000 persons in San Mateo, Calif., last night. Referring to the Democrats, he declared that "we can't whitewash them or we would be guilty of a crime worse than theirs."

McCarthy and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) insisting they are only reciting the facts, said they intend to continue to do so.

Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democratic National Committee said at Portland, Ore., that Eisenhower did not go far enough when he said he would advise his official family to avoid extreme partisanship.

Eisenhower said the times are too serious for such partisanship. Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said the President "failed to meet the issue." He said, "We don't mind the extreme partisanship, but it is the extreme treason" which he said some GOP speakers have been attributing to Democrats.

The President told his news conference yesterday he cheerfully admits he needs Democratic support for some parts of his legislative program, but he added he isn't much of a partisan and knows of no way he can stop this sort of thing except among members of his official family.

Battle for Rail Control Launched

NEW YORK (AP)—Rebel financier Robert R. Young ran up his battle colors today for an all-out fight against "powerful interests" for control of the New York Central railroad.

His challenge was accepted immediately by William White, president of the Central, who promised a "bare-knisted fight" to keep control of the railroad in the hands of the present management.

Young late yesterday officially declared the war for stockholder support which was forecast when directors of the railroad, meeting in New York Wednesday, refused to make Young chairman and executive officer.

Evidence of the behind-the-scenes struggle was reflected yesterday on the New York Stock Exchange. More than 100,000 shares of New York Central stock changed hands and the price went up $1.37 1/2 a share.

Young was reported to be buying all the stock he could on the open market while at the same time seeking support from smaller stockholders. He said he would submit his candidates for a new board of directors at the annual stockholders' meeting May 23 at Albany, N.Y.

The new 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 4-door sedan. With three great series Chevrolet offers the most beautiful choice of models in its field.

New style . . . New power . . . New economy . . . and yet lowest-priced line in its field!

That's why people are calling the new 1954 Chevrolet the outstanding motor car value of this new year!

Men and women everywhere are deciding that Chevrolet for 1954 gives more for the money than any other car in its price range.

Here are the reasons why . . .

New style—more beauty of line, contour and color—with stunning new bodies by Fisher and luxurious new modern-mode interiors.

New power—more pickup, more passing ability, more smoothness and quietness of operation with either of Chevrolet's two advanced 1954 engines—the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 125" engine (equipped with Powerglide (available on all models at extra cost) or the thoroughly proved "Blue-Flame 115" engine).

New economy—yes, even stronger gasoline savings—because both of these great high-compression engines are designed, engineered and built to wring more power from every charge of fuel.

Moreover, these new Chevrolets remain the lowest-priced line in their field, again this year.

Come in . . . see and drive the new 1954 Chevrolet . . . and place your order now!

Hope PTA's
Observe
Founders Day

The PTA's of Hope met in the Senior High School auditorium, Thursday February 11, at 3:00 p. m. for the annual Founder's Day observance and Silver Tea.

Mrs. Denver L. Dickinson, city council PTA president, presided. Invocation was given by Rev. Edmund Pendleton, pastor of the First Christian Church. Honor guests introduced were two former PTA presidents, Mrs. Floyd Porterfield and Mrs. Ross Gillespie, and Mrs. Jim McKenzie, the immediate past city council PTA president.

Miss Helga Loew, teacher from Germany who is spending February visiting Hope schools was welcomed. She made a gracious reply, observing that PTA's in South Germany are just now being organized and she was eager to gain first-hand knowledge of the functions of PTA as they were doing so much for the American schools she had visited.

Haskell Jones brought information on the establishment and present progress of the new school for Exceptional Children. He introduced the Exceptional Children's teacher, Mrs. Ernest D. May, who told of the various techniques of training and demonstrated some of the teaching aids.

The High School Speech class presented a skit, "We Rekindle Our Flame." Taking part were Barbara Holder, announcer; Paula Ray, pianist; and Carolyn Long, Lyla Brown, Janette McKenzie, Frances Nash, Alice Gentry, Sybil Shirley, Louise Fagan, Mary Ida Adams, Vinita Cash, Betty Burrough and Billy Joe Baker.

Mrs. Dickinson expressed appreciation to the PTA's for their contributions to the observance. The program was arranged by Oglesby, the flowers on the stage and at the home economics cottage by Paisley registration and favors provided by Garland, silver services by Jr.-Sr. High, and refreshments by Brookwood.

The tea was held in the home economics cottage where Mrs. Hamilton Hanegan and her second year home economics girls were hostesses. A color scheme of blue and yellow carried out the PTA colors. Jonquils and japonica were used throughout the rooms of the cottage and were used for the tea table. Favors in the valentine motif were pinned on each guest.

Presiding alternately at the coffee and tea services were Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Gillespie, and Mrs. Porterfield. Approximately 100 attended.

Mrs. Joe Barentine Honored With Shower
Mrs. Joe Barentine was honored with a pink and blue shower at the home of Mrs. Ross Bright, 1212 East Second street, on Monday, February 8, with Mrs. Carl Greenlee and Mrs. Cecil Guthrie assisting.

Potted plants and japonica arrangements were placed at vantage points in the living room and dining rooms. The dining table was covered with a pink linen cloth and held an arrangement of pink gladioli and pink carnations. All the flowers as well as the honoree's corsage of pink carnations, were arranged by Mrs. Lahroy Spates.

After the gifts were opened little cakes, leed to carry out the pink and blue color scheme, and punch were served to twenty-three guests.

Y. W. A. To Observe Focus Week
The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church is observing its Focus Week February 14-20. Among other activities planned for the week will be the Y. W. A. "High way" Breakfast on Sunday morning at the church, at 7 o'clock. Earl Bailey will be the guest speaker at this breakfast and the mothers of the girls will be honored guests.

There were fifteen girls present on Monday night for study of the mission book, "The New Orleans Story" taught by Mrs. Henry Haynes. The girls will meet again Monday, February 22, to complete this study at the home of Betty Owen.

Y. W. A. Counselor is Mrs. Dannie Hamilton, and Mrs. Homer Beverly is Assistant Counselor. The following girls are in the roster: Ruby Sue Cornelius, Betty Chalmers, Frances Nash, Mary Lou Cornelius, Frances Barentine, Wanzell Nix, Betty Owen, Jane Burroughs, Judy Moses, Billie Baker, Joyce McBay, Billy Williams, Janette Barr and JoAnn Ensminger.

Greta Caston Weds Charles Gough
The marriage of Miss Greta Ann Caston daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Caston and Charles Chris Gough, son of Mrs. Vera Gough and the late Charles Chris Gough, was solemnized at five o'clock Sunday evening, February 7, in the First Baptist Church.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by Reverend S. A. Whitlow, who read the vows before an altar of emerald greenery and baskets of white Calla lilies. White tapers burned in two-branched candelabra.

Preceding the double ring ceremony, nuptial music was presented by Luther Holloman at the organ. He accompanied Mrs. E. J. Ogran who sang "Always" and "Because." While the candles were being lighted, "You're Nearer" was played, and during the cere-

Union Leaders Talk Affiliation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An official of the independent International Longshoremen's Assn. said today members of the ILA's Atlantic Coast District met in Washington last Monday with representatives of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers to discuss affiliation of the two unions.

The ILA spokesman, who declined to be identified, quoted Lewis as saying "the door was open" to a formal association of the two large independent unions. The ILA official added, however, that such an affiliation is "far away yet."

World's first central generating plant was the Pearl Street station in New York, opened in 1882 by Edison, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

many "Carefree" was played. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Misses. Imogene Arnold and Virgie Caston, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. Miss Arnold wore a gray iridescent taffeta afternoon frock, and Miss Caston an ice blue shantung. Their wristlets were of pink feathered carnations.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore a dress of Rosemont lace over satin. The Queen Ann collar and flared skirt were trimmed with rhinestones. Her mitts were of white satin. She carried an orchid on a white Bible, and wore vanda orchids in her hair.

Miss Callie Caston attended her sister as maid of honor. She chose a dress of beige antique taffeta designed with a Chantilly lace bodice over taffeta and a full skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations, and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Mitchell LaGrone served as best man. Ushers were Billy Mitchell and Bill Martin.

Miss Sue O'Steen presided at the guest book.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of terra cotta crepe with grey accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The mother of the groom was dressed in a brown suit with brown accessories, and her corsage was of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a short wedding trip. For travel Mrs. Gough chose a navy blue taffeta dress with fitted jacket. She pinned an orchid at her shoulder. The couple will be a home in Hope where both are employed.

Out of town guests were: Miss Callie Caston, aunt of the bride, Mrs. James W. Hazzard, Shreveport, Mrs. Earlie Foster, Jr., Lewisville Mrs. C. M. Walker, Columbus, Mrs. Luther Smith, Mrs. Arthur Keel, Mrs. R. L. Levens, Miss Lucille Adams, Mrs. Lat Moses, Mrs. Jamie Boyette, and Mrs. H. L.
